

Dear boxer friends,

Living in the world we do not recognize anymore, in the time of global disease threat, without real social contacts with our real friends we're used to, but only virtually on social media, we, boxer people finally gained the possibility to meet together at the ATIBOX World Boxer Show 2021 in the beautiful Hungary, in the wonderful Felsőlajos, where we last met on another magnificently organized ATIBOX in 2013.

Aware of the fact that the very foundation of our modern civilization is shaken by the COVID-19 pandemics, we are all trying hard to get back on the good old track again. And we really cannot wait to meet dear friends anymore, to meet each other again, and to enjoy the competition of our beloved boxers for the most prestigious title of ATIBOX World Boxer Champion 2021!

For that I would like to express my sincere and true gratitude to the great efforts of Hungaria Boxer Club, guided by the president Mr. Imre Bíró, and his organizing team for taking over the great responsibility in most challenging times to prepare and organize this supreme exhibition and for allowing us to share the utmost pleasure of making possible to observe the world's best boxers at one place, in Felsőlajos.

Thank you Imre, thank you Hungaria Boxer Club, thank you honourable judges, and above all - thank you, dear exhibitors, boxer owners and breeders from so many different countries around the globe for making ATIBOX World Boxer Championship 2021 ultimate and highly spectacular event in the 71th year of ATIBOX !

In the turmoiled and estranged world we live in, it seems almost easy to forget that there are so many important things – things like health, freedom, joy and happiness, and things like friends, both on two and on four legs. But simple, these are the only things that actually matters at all. Nothing else does ...

In so unwillingly divided boxer world, it makes no difference who is better or bigger, who is wrong and who is right, who is more or less important, or whose boxer is more beautiful than the other one.

We have understood and learned that all of this is fully irrelevant and unimportant.

In this divided boxer world, ATIBOX stays with hands widely open to embrace and welcome all of you carrying boxers in your hearts, no matter where do you come from nor where are you heading to!

We all belong to the same world – the united world of boxer friends!

Always have and always will!

Therefore, ladies and gentlemen, dear boxer friends, stay safe and well, and let's celebrate our boxer at ATIBOX World Boxer Show 2021 in beautiful Hungary!

Milos A. Lucic
ATIBOX President
